

Furman University Men's & Women's Basketball Presents

Education Day

Free for all Greenville County Elementary School Students, Teachers, & Staff

Thursday, January 28, 2016

Furman University - Timmons Arena

Paladin basketball is committed to helping our Greenville youth learn how hard work and education can help you reach your dreams. Join our student-athletes, faculty, and coaches as they talk with students about the many careers that can be found on a college campus and our student-athletes' career goals after their basketball careers are over.

STATE SOCIAL STUDIES STANDARDS COVERED:

- 2-1.4 Summarize changes that have occurred in the local community over time, including changes in the use of land and in the way people earn their living.
- 2-3.1 Summarize the role of community workers who provide goods and services.
- 2-1 The student will demonstrate an understanding of the local community as well as the fact that geography influences not only the development of communities but also the interactions between people and the environment.
- 2-1.5 Identify on a map or globe the location of his or her local community, state, nation, and continent.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

- 9:00 AM Participants arrive & hear from sponsors, faculty, coaches, & student-athletes. They will also play games, take pictures, & get autographs from Furman student-athletes, coaches, mascots, & cheerleaders.
- 10:15 AM Participants will receive a COMPLIMENTARY BOX LUNCH and hear from Furman University coaches, professors, and staff members
- 11:00 AM Cheer on the Furman Women's Basketball Team in their game versus the Samford Bulldogs!
- 1:00 PM Depart Timmons Arena

Each student who attends this event will also receive a free ticket to the Furman vs Samford men's basketball game later that evening at 7 PM.
