INTRODUCTION TO THE CAROLINA HIGH SCHOOL & ACADEMY PORTFOLIO

The Carolina High School & Academy school portfolio was developed to document the changes and progress our school has made while working to continuously improve everything we do. The portfolio provides our staff with an ongoing means for self-assessment, communication, continuous improvement, and accountability.

The categories used in this portfolio are based upon our High Schools That Work ten key practices and the 90-90-90 (90% minority, 90% poverty, 90% academic performance at or above grade level) schools' research. Both of these initiatives promote strategies that are research-based and are relevant to schools like ours. These categories were selected because we agree that the philosophies written into the initiatives will lead to CHS becoming an excellent school. Within each category is a description of the intent of the category, a brief summary of where we are as a school, and our next steps.

This school portfolio is a living document that describes our school and includes actual evidence of our work. It describes who we are, our vision for the school, goals, plans, progress, and achievements in the context of client demographics and needs, and school partnerships. The portfolio also describes how we build and utilize our overall school plan for the purpose of increasing student achievement. It is in this final chapter that one can see an overview of all the progress and changes we have been able to accomplish within each section and throughout our school. It also shows how all of the parts fit together to make our school a positive place for our students.

Please enjoy this comprehensive treasure as it provides the story of who we are and how we work together to continuously improve what we do to prepare our students to become successful citizens and participants in the future world!

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Student Achievement

Teachers at Carolina High School and Academy keep abreast of the latest methods of delivering instruction through rigorous professional development opportunities offered at both the district and school level. Teachers have also taken advantage of staff development opportunities that are offered through the nearby universities in addition to attending local and national conferences. Because we recognize that students learn in different ways, teachers are encouraged to try a variety of instructional strategies to meet the needs of all students. We encourage all staff to be involved in professional development opportunities to increase student learning. Our highest priority is to implement the learned strategies to carry out our vision and closing the achievement gaps we have identified. Teachers are encouraged to work together in collaborative teams at the departmental level to plan vertically to ensure a continuum of learning that makes sense for all students. Teachers are also encouraged to perform cross-curricular planning to help students make connections between content areas. This is especially important as we move toward project based learning and integrated curriculum classes. Teachers are placed in cohorts based on expertise for professional development purposes to encourage collaboration and collegial conversations about instruction.

We have determined through studying our achievement gaps that it is important to raise the rigor of the curriculum for all of our students. We believe the Standards in Practice process is the best way to achieve this goal. By combining grade level standards-based instruction and differentiated instructional practices with project based learning, we will increase our students' learning.

Using Student Achievement Data

We have systematically tried to use data to drive our decisions about the instructional program. The data has been made available to all teachers, parents, and students. In using the data, the teachers are making data-driven instructional decisions to help move all students to the next level.

We have used data in the following ways:

- Identifying areas of weakness on EOCEP exams to improve curriculum and scheduling.
- Using graduation rates to closely identify what percentage of growth we need to satisfy the requirements of the next level on the State Report Card.
- In the classroom, teachers use diagnostic tests, writing samples, quizzes, tests, group work, Individual Assessments of Knowledge and Thinking, and other forms of assessment to determine student progress. These types of assessments are helpful in shaping instructional strategies to accommodate the students' different learning styles.

With PowerTeacher, GCSource, and Enrich, teachers will be able to access the test data on their students more quickly. This will help us to address the achievement gaps more effectively.

Student Support Systems

Recognizing that some students need support beyond that which is available in the classroom, CHS has worked with the district to provide a variety of special services.

We have one resource teacher who works with students with learning disabilities. We also have two teachers that offer services to students in an inclusion model. Lastly, we also have two self-contained special education teachers that offer multiple core and elective classes. When a teacher believes that a student has special needs that require attention, the student is referred to the Assistance Team (A-Team). The purpose of the A-Team is to try to match student needs with resources that are available through the school, district, and community.

Summary of Progress

The past three years have been transitional. We have a clear path for increasing student achievement laid out before us. We are currently implementing project based learning through the norms and protocols of the New Tech Model. We have been focusing on creating rigorous projects that are standards-based and contain a variety of instructional strategies that meet the needs of all students.

Next Steps

We are focused on implementing and being stewards of the mission and vision of Carolina High School and Academy. Our goal is to increase the rigor in the courses we teach and provide meaningful and relevant projects and support for every student. To accomplish this, we plan to:

- Incorporate a project-based learning environment for next year's 9th, 10th, and 11th graders to create a culture of trust, responsibility, and respect
- Examine student assessment data regularly, as a whole faculty and in grade level teams
- Establish collaborative teams of teachers to prepare lessons/projects that foster a new learning environment for all students
- Provide meaningful professional development for the staff that is geared toward implementing the mission and vision of the school

Teacher and Administrator Quality

We strive to improve our instructional and organizational priorities, because improvement must be continuous and rigorous. As a staff, we are constantly evaluating all aspects of the school to ensure effective instruction and success. All teachers and administrators of the school are focused on student achievement and providing the most positive educational experience for all students. Teachers and administrators are continually working together to evaluate and refine instructional practices.

Summary of Progress

This current school year, teachers worked on learning about project-based learning through participating in their own project. The teachers worked together to solve a real and relevant problem for our school and presented their findings to a group of stakeholders. We will continue to make our focus for professional development on implementing effective project based learning in the classroom.

Next Steps

- Ensure all staff members are prepared for a project-based learning environment
- Ensure all instruction is standards based and the new South Carolina Standards are implemented
- Ensure all teachers are being observed on a regular basis

- Continue to reflect on and evaluate all areas of the school to ensure the most efficient use of resources are used to positively impact student achievement and classroom instruction
- Ensure the staff continues to participate in professional development activities that are in line with the goals of the school

School Climate

We have continued to improve the school climate by providing students with a safe and inviting learning environment. The school logo and colors were changed in order to increase consistency with all school organizations and to remind students of our school's rich history. To increase school pride, additional school spirit activities have been incorporated such as pep rallies, spirit week, assemblies, and class competitions. This year, we have incorporated culture days with the freshman and sophomore New Tech students to build culture within. Workshops on the culture and structure of project-based learning were conducted by teachers and administrators during the first ten days of school. The workshops were designed to prepare students for school year and get them acclimated to the protocols, norms, Ideal Graduate characteristics, and how to work with a group. The school name was added to the building as well as the Trojan logo added to locations on and around the campus.

Summary of Progress

Over the past 3 years, teachers and administrators have been working to improve the learning environment in the building. With a focus on providing students with rigorous learning experiences, students have noticed a positive change. Students are being challenged now more than ever and the results are evidenced on the School Report card.

Next Steps

- Ensure all instruction is rigorous and challenging for students through project based learning
- Ensure students are being held accountable for their learning
- Continue to provide support for students during instruction
- Continue to provide students with relevant learning experiences that challenge them inside and outside of the classroom
- Continue to build upon school spirit and school pride in the building
- Increase AP offerings and passing rates
- Maintain and increase enrollment numbers
- Increase service learning and volunteer opportunities

Significant Challenges

- The poverty index is above 93.75%, with a 100% free lunch status, which presents many challenges for our students physically, emotionally, socially, and academically
- A highly transient school population hinders learning continuity
- Many students work part-time and full-time jobs to support their families
- There is a large population of special education students resulting in a max graduation rate of 85-90% each year
- On average 72% of students enter the 9th grade reading three to four grade levels below the 9th grade
- Student attendance rates are consistently below 94% each year
- Parental support and involvement is consistently low

- Some faculty members have not been consistent with best practices

SCHOOL PROFILE

The School Community

Carolina High School, located in Greenville County, was established in the 1956 -1957 school year as a 9th – 12th grade public high school to serve the students from both Welcome High School and Parker High School upon their closings. With fourteen high schools located within the Greenville County School District's borders Carolina was selected as a magnet school beginning in the 1995 – 1996 school year. This led to Carolina High School becoming Carolina High School and Academy. The specialized curriculums for Carolina include both a Pre-Engineering Program and a Health Professions Program. At its peak, the enrollment for Carolina was approximately 1300 students; however these numbers have decreased over the years as needs and composition of the community have changed. The Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) High Schools That Work (HSTW) initiative became a part of the Carolina Academy concept initiative in 1996 (Earle Bennett, HSTW, November 2003).

Today, Carolina High School and Academy has approximately 707 students who are served by 48 classroom teachers, including two academy teachers and an academy program coordinator. The original Carolina High School building was demolished in 2006 to make way for the new facilities currently used today. The new building includes 48 classrooms, two gymnasiums, a library, an auditorium, athletic/amenities, and three computer labs.

Carolina's current student population consists of 45.1% African Americans, 29.3% Hispanic/Latinos and 20.5% Caucasians, with the remaining 5.1% classified as other than those noted. Currently, freshmen compose 37.8% of the student population, sophomores 24.3%, juniors 19.8%, while seniors make up 18.1% of the total enrollment. The magnet program has a current enrollment of 125 students which makes up approximately 17.7% of the student population. Currently, 100.0% of the student population is on Free/Reduced Lunch. This number reflects the school's poverty index of over 93.75%. Our primary feeder schools—Tanglewood Middle School, Lakeview Middle School, and Hughes Middle School—each have a Free/Reduced Lunch population in excess of 50%.

In the past, Carolina was a low-performing school according to the South Carolina School Report Card. Through hard work and effort, the school has shown growth. The Absolute Rating in 2011 was Below Average with an Improvement Rating of Excellent. In 2012 the Absolute Rating was Below Average with an Improvement Rating of Below Average. In 2013 the Absolute Rating was Below Average with an Improvement Rating of Below Average. In 2014 the Absolute Rating was Average with an Improvement Rating of Excellent.

In 2011, Mr. Michael Delaney became the principal. Mr. Delaney is a former Assistant Principal, Director of the Freshman Academy, and mathematics teacher for Carolina High School and Academy.

Classroom Discipline/Learning Climate

Carolina High School and Academy provides a disciplined, but stimulating, learning climate. Parents are encouraged to become involved in our school community by helping with their child's homework and actively supporting their child's successes. Student discipline is the responsibility of all Carolina High School and Academy stakeholders.

A major goal is to provide a positive climate for learning in order to assure student achievement, enhance self-esteem, and develop positive social behavior. To reach this goal, CHS offers many opportunities for student participation and recognition.

The school recognizes student achievement by offering incentives such as, field trips, t-shirts, certificates, ice cream socials, and award banquets. Students are encouraged and expected to maintain appropriate behavior at all times. Student handbooks and other information about school and classroom policies are distributed and discussed on a regular basis.

Subject matter and courses are reviewed on a regular basis. Curricula have been developed in alignment with state academic standards and local needs. All stakeholders are encouraged and welcomed to be active participants in this process.

Counseling and Other Student Support Services

Students at CHS receive a broad range of quality support services from an outstanding staff. Carolina High School and Academy has three full time guidance counselors. The goal of our guidance department is to support the personal, social, emotional, educational, and career development of all students. Counselors work with all stakeholders to help each student become a responsible and productive citizen.

A district social worker upon school requests along with a mental health counselor work with all stakeholders to ensure that all students attend school on a regular basis and to make home visits for students who do not attend school regularly.

Carolina High School and Academy also has a family services coordinator provided by the Urban League. The program is the Pre-College Enrollment Program. This program is designed to give opportunities to people who wish to pursue career goals in post-secondary institutions. The services provided are as follows:

Partnerships

Carolina High School and Academy envisions our families, staff, and community working together to help our children succeed. This goal is a shared responsibility. We see a need to explore and develop new strategies in an attempt to involve our community because we believe that proactive cooperation will help us and our students meet the challenges of a fast-paced, ever-changing world.

Recognizing that parental involvement is one of the greatest contributors to student success in school, our staff convened a team to develop strategies for increased parent involvement. We determined, given our community's demographic profile that we need to provide non-threatening opportunities, at convenient times, so that parents can be included. Parents can be involved in a variety of activities that the school offers such as chaperones on field trips, prom and homecoming, career speakers, and tutoring after school. We would like to provide off-campus opportunities, such as a community picnic, for parents to meet teachers and faculty. Ultimately, we would like to have a strong partnership structure for our school so that our partners' efforts directly impact our students' success in school and in life.

We have developed a partnership initiative, as a part of our comprehensive school wide improvement plan, to ensure that our partners have the opportunity to contribute to and benefit from these endeavors. We foresee a reciprocal agreement between the school and community members. We already have many reciprocal opportunities for our students and would like to expand this effort. We want continuous long-term relationships which will help to educate all students, provide possible shadowing/internships, and will in turn train future professionals in these fields. It is our belief that our students have much to offer, as well as learn from, their community. We will continue to look for ways to develop two-way partnerships.

Carolina High School and Academy has established partnerships with parents, community leaders, and businesses in order to enhance the educational experience and prepare our students for life beyond high school. Following are examples of existing partnerships:

Carolina High School and Academy also has an English as a Second Language program as this population increases. In addition to those students with disabilities, Carolina serves six students as mandated by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and its subsequent amendments. It is notable that the special needs populations, and 504 groups, have increased significantly in the most recent data collection period.

Professional Development

The focus for professional development this year was getting teachers ready for project based learning. Teachers were provided with several opportunities to learn about PBL through cohorts as well as learning how to use available technology to aid instructional practices through PBL. The table below shows the various opportunities that teachers participated in.

2016 – 2017 Professional Development Plan

Professional development for 2016-2017 will continue to prepare teachers for PBL as the school continues to implement school-wide. Also, training will take place on project-based learning as we transition our school into a PBL environment.

New Tech NTAC Conference

Second and third year PBL implementation teachers, administrators and some first year implementation teachers will participate in a week long Professional Development this July in Chicago. This is the New Tech Annual Conference which offers content specific PD to all teachers, school leaders, and support personnel. The PDs will aid teachers in learning how to implement effective project-based learning and also allow built in work time for schools to plan together.

New Tech Training

All PBL teachers as well as other teachers will be offered professional development in consistent and effect PBL strategies. Some topics will include:

- IAKTs – Individual Assessment on Knowledge and Thinking

- Agency Rubric
- Oral Communication Rubric
- Critical Friends
- Assessing Student Work

Teacher Residency

A teacher residency will be offered for fourth year PBL implementation teachers. In this 2-3 day professional development, teachers will officially learn and experience what PBL looks like in the classroom. Teachers will develop and practice initial protocols, norms, and everyday practices in a PBL environment. This cohort of teachers will also begin to plan and develop projects for their PBL classroom.

Regularly Scheduled Meetings

- Weekly afternoon meetings will be scheduled for teachers involved in project-based learning
- Faculty meetings offered 1-2 times per month will include relevant professional development based on the needs of the staff
- Monthly meetings on how to incorporate technology in the classroom will be offered for teachers
- Department meetings will be held monthly to discuss PD from the district level pertaining to state testing, incorporating new standards, and common assignments/assessments

First Year and PAS-T Support

First year teachers, teachers new to the school and teachers who will be evaluated through PAS-T will also receive extra support and professional development. These teachers will receive PD on classroom management, planning and instruction, building rapport with students, and other topics as needed.
